The graphic features a dark blue background. On the left, a white rounded rectangle contains the Nursing Community Coalition logo (a blue circle with three human figures) and the text "NCC NURSES OF THE WEEK". Below this, it reads "This National Public Health Week, we want to thank all the public health nurses working to keep Americans safe during the COVID-19 pandemic." and "#YearoftheNurseandMidwife". On the right, a photograph shows a nurse in full PPE: a blue bouffant cap, glasses, a white surgical mask, and a clear face shield. The nurse is wearing blue scrubs.
