

May

Below is a summary of the Nursing Community Coalition's (NCC) activity for the month of May.

Letter on National Nurses Week

All fifty-nine members of the Nursing Community Coalition supported the letter sent to the entire Congress to celebrate National Nurses Week. The statement thanked them for their continued collaboration with the coalition and shared this year's theme for Nurses Week: Nurses Inspire, Innovate, Influence. Held annually from May 6-12, this year's Nurse Week coincided with the coalition's launch of its 10th Anniversary celebrations.

Letter on Title VIII Reauthorization

Fifty-one members of the Nursing Community Coalition signed on to a letter sent to the House Energy and Commerce as well as the Senate Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions Committees expressing the coalition's commitment to the Title VIII Nursing Workforce Reauthorization Act (H.R. 959/S.1109). The letter reiterated that this legislation is the coalition's top legislative priority for the 115th Congress.

Meetings

The NCC held their monthly meeting on May 1, 2018 and 28 NCC organizations were present for the discussion.

Meeting with Captain Sophia Russell

On May 23rd, members of the Steering Committee met with the Health Resources and Services Administration's Director of the Division of Nursing and Public Health, Captain Sophia Russell. Among other things, the National Sample Survey of Registered Nurses, HRSA's focus on educational infrastructures, and the use of Medication Assisted Treatment were discussed. Their conversation provided good insights for future partnerships and the Steering Committee will work to set up quarterly meetings with her office.
